How to Utilize the Toolkit

In this year's election cycle, your bank has an opportunity to mobilize employees and increase voter turnout by participating in permissible nonpartisan get-out-the-vote activities. The materials in this toolkit will help you create awareness and promote voter participation amongst employees at your organization. Visit SAO.Vote for additional tools and resources to help get-out-the-vote.

Remember, every vote counts and is an opportunity for bankers to make their voices heard!

Posters and Flyers

If people are forced to visualize voting they are more likely to vote. Use flyers and posters to create a buzz around participating in upcoming elections. Place copies of the promotional posters and flyers in this guide in high traffic areas, such as your lobby, break rooms, elevators or general areas where employees gather to encourage them to register and vote in upcoming elections.

You may use your bank's internal communications tools, e.g. intranet, email, or staff meetings to encourage staff to participate in upcoming elections. Any communication to staff should include nonpartisan information that will help them to vote. You may include polling hours and location information, voter information website, and election date reminders and deadlines.

To help you get started, use the template below to help motivate, remind and provide timely information about upcoming elections to your employees.

Sample Email GOTV Message from CEO:

Primary/Election Day is almost here!

This year we have the opportunity to elect lawmakers who will have an impact on our industry, our economy, our communities and our lives. Electing officials is an important opportunity we have as citizens to make our voices heard.

Election Day is Tuesday, November 5.

[or insert information about primary election dates]

Visit SecureAmericanOpportunity.com/vote [or visit state election website] and enter your address to learn more about key election dates and deadlines, find out how to apply for an absentee ballot [or vote early], and see a list of candidates running in your district.

Let's make sure our voices are heard.

Vote on Tuesday, November 5/Primary Day.
